And More!

The Japan-America Society of Indiana (JASI) has created a collaborative online Yosakoi dance festival with Indiana's "Sister State" in Japan, Tochigi Prefecture! Yosakoi is a unique, highly-energetic style of dance that originated in Japan, combining traditional Japanese dance movements with modern upbeat music. The professional dancers of the Seiya Yosakoi group in Kanuma City will perform live from Tochigi for this event! You're welcome to tune in and watch the Indiana-Tochigi dance event, and if the spirit moves you, we invite you to join the dance!

We're honored that the Governor of Tochigi Prefecture, Tomikazu Fukuda, will give a live greeting from Utsunomiya City, Tochigi.

JASI's new Yosakoi online partnership with Tochigi Prefecture is made possible with support from GEN-J Program and the Japan Foundation Center for Global Partnership.
